Policy:

THAT The existing policy for the installation of used clothing bins be revoked.

THAT The owners of the bins which have been installed on Council owned or controlled land be advised of the reasons for the change in Council policy and be given two months to remove these bins.

THAT Used clothing bins be permitted only on private land with the exception of residential properties. This is conditional upon any such installation not being detrimental to the amenity of the area.

Remarks: A report is being prepared for Council outlining a policy for locating bins in the Canterbury City area.
